Literary rights in the unpublished writings of Courtney Hodges are reserved to Mrs. Mildred Lee Hodges during her lifetime, and thereafter, to the people of the United States.

By agreement with the donor the following classes of documents will be withheld from research use:

1. Papers relating to private business affairs of individuals and to family and personal affairs.
2. Papers relating to investigations of individuals or to appointments and personnel matters.
3. Papers containing statements made by or to Courtney H. Hodges in confidence unless in the judgement of the Director of the Dwight D. Eisenhower Library the reason for the confidentiality no longer exists.
4. All other papers which contain information or statements that might be used to injure, harass, or damage any living person.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The personal papers of Courtney H. Hodges span the years 1904 to 1965 but the bulk and most significant parts cover the period from 1938 to 1949 particularly while he was head of Third Army and the Southern Defense Command at Fort Sam Houston, Texas controlling the Louisianan Maneuver area (February 1943-March 1944); while Deputy Commander to General Omar Bradley, First Army (March- August 1944); and as Commanding General of the First Army (August 1944-January 1949).

The pre-World War II portion of the Hodges papers also generally concern his Military career and consist of orders, awards, reports, diaries (1912-1913); 1914; 1916-1917--all fragmentary), General Service School Manuals (1924), A flight log book (1926-1929), Army War College lectures (1933-1934), some correspondence, and other materials. About half of this deals with his World War I service in France with the Allied Expeditionary Force.

Approximately five-sixths of the papers concern the period from 1938 to 1949 including various chronological and/or subject series of personal and official correspondence, orders, notes, memoranda, reports, problem maps, appointment calendar, speeches, commendations, critiques, personnel files, diary (of inspection trip to North African Theater of Operation, October 25-November 23, 1943), War Diary of the First Army Headquarters (June 2, 1944-May 7, 1945), training memorandum, telegrams, data handbook of First Army (1949), G-2 Periodic Reports (December 1944-May 1945), Situation Reports (December 1944-May 1945), G-2 Estimates (December 1944-April 1945), G-3 Summaries (December 1944-May 1945), First Army After Action Reports (August 1944-February 1945), loose newsclippings and bound scrapbooks of correspondence and news clippings of his role in World War II (1944-45) and on his retirement (1949), and other materials.

Prominent subjects in these files are infantry training, field artillery, airborne and ground forces maneuvers, operations of various corps, the First Army, World War II in European Theater of Operations in general, and post-war operations and training. The several hundred items in the collection dated from 1950 to 1965 are congratulatory letters, a diary of his trip to India, Kashmir and Padistan as Military Adviser to the UN Mediator for Kashmir (June 16-August 23, 1950), personal correspondence, and other miscellaneous memorabilia.

Approximately 2,200 photographs, 15 records, and 2 films were turned over to the audio-visual collection. 143 books and numerous magazines were turned over to the book collection and included numerous operations, style, field, and command manuals, histories of battles, histories of corps and divisions, Reports of Operations, and other works.

Maps were turned over to the map collection including WWI operations maps (both Allied and German), fire control maps from Ft. Benning, GA (1928-1929). Command and General Staff School problem maps (1924-25), G-2 sketch maps of enemy order of battle (January 1945), and of 1st Army and USSR meeting in (April 1945), a captured German map (December 1944) and others.
