SERIES DESCRIPTION

Box No.    Series

1-105        I. Library Files. 105 boxes

Printed material collected by the Library staff of the Republican National Committee for reference purposes. Most of the material consists of campaign literature, brochures, booklets, research reports and newspaper clippings. Arranged alphabetically by subject.

106-641    II. Clipping File. 536 boxes.

Clippings from major U.S. newspapers, arranged alphabetically by subject. The bulk of the clippings date from the late 1950's and early 1960's.

642-718    III. Research Division Files. 77 boxes.

Material collected by the Research Division of the Republican National Committee to assist in compiling political reports and literature. Most of the material consists of newspaper clippings, government publications and reports compiled by the Research Division staff. Arranged alphabetically by subject.

719-723    IV. Eisenhower Correspondence. 5 boxes.

Correspondence of the Republican National Committee headquarters staff relating to Dwight D. Eisenhower, 1962-65. The material includes letters from the general public and local Republican organizations asking for information about Eisenhower, commenting on Eisenhower's policies, or asking for help in getting Eisenhower to speak in their vicinities. Some of the letters were referred to the RNC by Eisenhower's office at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. None of the correspondence is by Eisenhower. The material is arranged in three parts: by subject, by state, and by name.

724-745    V. Walker Research Files. 22 boxes.

Newspaper clippings collected by G. Earle Walker, an official of the Aircraft-Marine Products Company of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The clippings pertain to major issues and personalities of the Eisenhower administration. They are arranged by year and thereunder by subject. The last box contains some of Mr. Walker's correspondence and research notes. Mr. Walker donated the material to the Research Division of the Republican National Committee in 1958 and it was received at the Eisenhower Library as part of the RNC files.

746-755 VI. Oversized Material. 5 boxes and 5 oversized items

Scrapbooks, news clippings and printed material relating to national politics and campaigns.

 World Almanac [fragment, 1961]

Boxes 106 through 641 contain newspaper clippings which had been sent to the Eisenhower Library by the Republican National Committee, under Accessions A65-12 and A65-12/1. These clippings, when received, were badly disarranged and, consequently, unusable: However, they have now been rearranged under the subject headlines originally established by the Republican National Committee. Clippings received under Accessions A65-12 and A65-12/1 have been combined, since they are similar in nature, and are herewith listed:
