SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of bound volumes of the public statements of officials of the Department of Defense. The volumes are arranged by name of official, years and date which statement was made. The collection is divided into five series, each one generally consisting of photocopied speeches, press conference transcripts, press releases, testimonies before Congress, media interviews, and other public statements bound into volumes.

SERIES ONE consists of fourteen volumes of the "Public Statements of Secretary of Defense [Charles E.] Wilson" covering the period from 1953 to 1957. Subjects includes the Defense Department in general; NATO; Mutual Security; offshore procurements; military technology; specific crises such as Korea and the Middle East; the President's Advisory Committee on Government Organization (Rockefeller's Committee); defense appropriations; specific legislation such as the Doctor Draft Act Amendments; pro-Republican Party and Administration speeches; unification of the armed forces; and other matters.

SERIES TWO consists of seven volumes of the "Public Statements of Secretary of Defense [Neil] McElroy" and covers the period from 1957 to 1959. It includes the same general topics as Series one with the addition of testimony on the Mutual Security Act of 1959.

SERIES THREE consists of three volumes of the "Public Statements of Secretary of Defense [Thomas S. Jr.] Gates" covering the period from 1959 to 1961. Additional subjects in this series are Gates' statements and testimony before Congressional Sub Committees and an address at the launching of the Theodore Roosevelt while he was Deputy Secretary of Defense, July-Oct., 1959; holiday greetings from the Secretary to armed forces personnel; statement upon signing the Memorandum of Understanding for conservation of fish and wildlife on military installations (July 11, 1960); and his letter of resignation (Jan. 4, 1961).

SERIES FOUR consists of three volumes of the "Public Statements of Deputy Secretary of Defense [Donald A.] Quarles," 1957 to 1959. Additional subjects in this series include satellite and missile programs; the Mutual Security Act of 1957; appropriations; reorganization of the Defense Department; testimony on the renewal of the Trade Agreements Act; and on the national Aeronautics and Space Act; and other matters.

SERIES FIVE consists of one volume of the "Public Statements of General [Nathan F.] Twining, Chairman, JCS" [Joint Chiefs of Staff] covering the period from 1957 to 1960. Additional subjects in this series include his swearing-in statement; military assistance programs; military posture; airlift for ground forces; the Mutual Security Program; the defense budget; reorganization of the Defense Department; increasing military pay; foreign policy in general; the organization and function of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and other matters.
